

AGENDA

Topic	Speaker
Introduction and scope of the webinar	Roberto La Ragione
One Health – what does this mean?	Pikka Jokelainen
Introduction of the three collaborating organisations  EUP AH&amp;W EUP OHAMR ICARS	Nathalie Vanderheijden Elizabeth Hedström Sunday Ochai
Case Studies
Outcomes of the COINCIDE project	Jaap Wagenaar
Importance of monitoring wildlife and wildlife health surveillance	Dolores Gavier-Widén
Role of diagnostics	Florence Tardy
Linking biosecurity & health, with the aim to reduce the need for antimicrobial treatment and mortality	Søren Saxmose Nielsen
Vector-borne diseases (West Nile virus), climate change and One Health	Nicholas Johnson
Importance of vaccination to keep animals healthy	Christine Rollier
Benefits from vaccination in poultry in Tanzania	Siha Mdemu
Reduction of antimicrobial use in aquaculture in Vietnam	Tran Minh Phu
Summary and conclusions	Roberto La Ragione